This production was conceived and produced as a radio play. The accompanying illustrations are a conceptual costume design project showcasing the designer’s inspiration and, as such, are not intended to reflect the ethnic composition of the cast of voice actors. The two projects exist separately but complement each other nicely for streaming purposes.

In 1986, a group of long-time theatre goers incorporated themselves as the Friends of Niagara University Theatre in order to raise awareness and develop support for the theatre department.

Now you too can join the Friends' efforts to help ensure the future of one of the oldest professional theatre training programs in the region, and help students both on and off stage.
